

NEWS RELEASE

Waterford on South Hill

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 4, 2010

For more information, contact:
Mary Johnson
(509) 536-2929, ext. 8153

100 quilts featured at Waterford's annual quilt show

SPOKANE, Wash. — Waterford on South Hill's 2010 quilt show, A Walk Through a Garden of Quilts, runs Friday, March 12 and Saturday, March 13 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. More than 100 quilts will be on display, and visitors will vote for their favorite quilt. Many quilts will be accompanied by written histories. There is no admission fee, and the event is open to the public.

Quilt designer Georgie Gerl will present "Designing Fabric ... Seeing Beyond the Obvious" at 2 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. Saturday. Gerl is a quilt designer for Kona Bay Fabrics and Asian Fabric Magazine and worked with Debbie Mumm as a quilt and craft designer for more than four years. She and husband Tim have owned Aardvark Stained Glass for more than 30 years.

The show will feature quilting vendors, door prizes and tours of model homes. For more information, people can call (509) 536-2929.

Waterford offers a wide range of homes and lifestyle options, including home health and home care services. The full-service retirement community sits on 19 acres at 29th Avenue and Pittsburg Street. Waterford on South Hill is part of Touchmark—a company that has been serving the needs of older adults and families for 30 years. For more information, visit WaterfordSpokane.com.

- end -