FAIR TO PROVIDE WAYS TO MAKE MOVING EASY

SPOKANE, Wash. — Waterford is hosting a Downsizing to Move Fair on Wednesday, April 19 from 1 to 4 p.m. There is no admission fee, and the event is opened to the public.

This informative fair will offer:

- Advice from moving specialists. Four companies that specialize in the “art of moving” will offer advice on what to keep and what to sell or give away based on lifestyle and the size of a new home.
- Moving vendors. Services vary among movers. Some sort, pack, sell collectibles, move heavy items and keepsakes, clean and dispose of garbage. Others not only move but place furniture in new homes and even connect cable TV, stereos and lamps. Individual vendors will highlight their services and costs.

Participating vendors include The Estate Expert; The Vintage Rabbit Antique Mall; Owen’s and Company Auctions, Appraisals and Estate; Brooks Moving Co.; Mayflower Moving and Empire Movers.

“Downsizing and moving are real barriers for older people who are considering a smaller, more manageable home,” says Life Enrichment Director Betty Doerschlag. “The fair will offer resources to help people create workable plans for moving.”

The event will be at Waterford on South Hill, 2929 S. Waterford Drive (corner of 29th and Pittsburg). For more information, people can call (509) 536-2929.

Opened in 1991, Waterford on South Hill is home to more than 300 people. The 55-plus resort-style retirement community offers a wide range of single-level homes, apartments and lifestyle options.
