ONE-OF-A-KIND ITEMS AVAILABLE AT WATERFORD HOLIDAY BAZAAR

SPOKANE, Wash. — Close to a thousand people are expected at Waterford's annual Holiday Bazaar Thursday, November 9, 2006. The bazaar runs from 10 am to 4 pm at Waterford on South Hill, 2929 S. Waterford Drive (corner of 29th and Pittsburg). There is no admission fee; door prizes will be given away.

At least 24 vendors will be on site selling handcrafted items and holiday, specialty gifts. In addition, Waterford residents are holding their White Elephant Sale featuring an array of collectibles and other objects gathered over the past several months.

Opened in 1991, Waterford on South Hill is home to more than 300 people. The 55-plus resort-style retirement community offers a wide range of single-level homes, apartments and lifestyle options.
